The Ambassador

The Embassy of Lebanon in Washington D.C. has the sad duty to announce the passing of His Excellency Nassib Lahoud.

Minister Lahoud was a Lebanese national figure, a statesman and a brilliant politician. He was a former Member of Cabinet and a former Member of Parliament, and a former Ambassador of Lebanon to the United States, where until now, he is still very much appreciated and remembered by many U.S. officials and friends.

We know that our Lebanese community in the U.S. will miss him. We all pray for the repose of his soul and for his dear family, may God give them comfort in these extremely difficult time.
